

WG GURTS

Objectives

The objective of this Working Group is, on the one hand, to report to the public research sector scientist about current issues in the area of Genetic Use Restriction Technologies (GURTS) and the impact of possible developments on public research. On the other hand its objective is to provide scientific background information to policy makers and regulators involved in these issues.

Documents and statements

PRRI Statement on Geneswitching and Gurts_EN (24 Jan 2006)

PRRI Statement on Geneswitching and Gurts_ES (24 Jan 2006)

PRRI Note on Geneswitching and Gurts_EN (23 Jan 2006)

PRRI Note on Geneswitching and Gurts_ES (23 Jan 2006)

Gurts References

Letter on GURTS to Mr. Ritz of the Standing Committee on Agriculture and Agri-Food

Members

- Dr. Allen van Deynze, University of California, United States (Co-chair)
- Dr. Andrés Wigdorovitz, Plant Reproductive Biology, Rm 1103, University of California, Argentina
- Dr. Hector Quemada, Calvin College, USA
- Dr. Roger N. Beachy, Donald Danforth Plant Science Center, USA
- Dr. Gil Enríquez Obregón, Center for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology (CIGB), Cuba
- Dr. Mesmin Ndong Biyo'o, Institut de Recherches Agronomiques et Forestières, Gabon

Contact

For questions, comments and suggestions please contact the PRRI Secretariat